
BINIAM KINFE

Fairchild Building 159 713-313 7494 kinfeb@tsu.edu

PROFILE

- Caring teacher with more than six years of experience.
 - Strong background in Developmental and College level Mathematics
 - Dedicated to creating stable learning environments and inspiring students to do their best.
-

EDUCATION

MASTER'S DEGREE IN MATHEMATICS (2006)

Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas

- Thesis Topic "Dense and Nowhere Dense sequences in the set of Real numbers and Complex numbers"

BACHELOR'S DEGREE IN MATHEMATICS (2004)

Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas

- Minor in Physics
-

EXPERIENCE

Texas Southern University

Mathematics Professor

Fall 2006 – Present

- Teach developmental Mathematics classes, including administering lessons, facilitating discussion, and take attendance. In addition to this, evaluate students' growing knowledge of Mathematics and contact underperforming students regarding their status. Furthermore, provide attendance and retention effort documents to the administration.

North Forest ISD (M.B. Smiley High School)

Math tutor

Feb 2005-May 2007

- Tutor and help students who are struggling to pass the TAKS test, in small groups, one to one and in computer labs.

Texas Southern University

Student Supplemental Instructor

June 2004-Aug 2004

- Give lecture one hour a day and tutor students individually.
- Taking attendance and keep records of student's daily performance.

Texas Southern University

Math tutor

June 2002-Dec 2006

- One to one tutor developmental and college level Mathematics, including physics.
- Organize folders of lab records signing sheet.
- Instructing and assisting instructor during boot camps.

Computer Skills

Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft power point, Typing, Maple Software, C programming, and the use of internet (search, e-mail...).
