

EPA Environmental Research Assistant – Job for Recent Master’s Grads

The EPA Environmental Research and Business Support Program is searching for an Environmental Research Assistant to join the team at the Ground Water and Ecosystems Restoration Division EPA facility in Ada, Oklahoma. The Assistant will be responsible for assisting with chemical characterization and quality analysis of ground water and surface water.

- Full-time, $26.91/hour
- Must have earned at minimum, a Master’s degree in engineering, physics, chemistry, geology, soil science, ecology, environmental science, environmental engineering, or a related field
- Must have experience with spectroscopy or Raman spectroscopy, laboratory sample collection and preparation, routine laboratory maintenance and safety protocol, data analysis and evaluation, and Microsoft Office suites
- Will perform laboratory tasks, as well as some field work, to include: data collection and input, performing quality assurance checks, and data analysis support for water quality analyses

For the full position description and to apply, visit our website: <https://www.zintellect.com/Posting/Details/2200>

Questions? Email EPAJobs@orau.org. To hear more about position openings like this, follow us on Twitter at @GovCareerPaths.