

Development Fund for Black Students in Science and Technology Scholarships

Organization Information:

Development Fund for Black Students in Science and Technology
2705 Bladensburg Rd. NE
Washington, DC 20018
Phone Number: (202) 635-3604
Email: dlhinson@compuserve.com

Study Level: Undergraduate

Award Type: Scholarship

Purpose: To provide scholarships to African American undergraduate students.

Focus: Science; Technology.

Qualifications: Applicants must meet the following criteria: African-American heritage; undergraduate students majoring (or intending to major) in a technical field of study (i.e., engineering, math, science, etc.); enrollment at one of the predominantly Black colleges or universities; U.S. citizenship or permanent residency.

Criteria: Awards will be based on academic achievement, personal essay describing career goals, current and past relevant extracurricular activities, recommendations from teachers and guidance counselors and financial need.

Funds: $2,000.

Duration: Up to 4 years.

To Apply: Applicants must submit a completed application form.

Deadline: June 15.

For more information go to: <http://www.dfsstscholarship.org>